Chicago Cubs Win Title For Second Successive Season

THEY OUTPLAYED DETROIT

The Decisive Game of the Series Was 2 to 0 in Favor of the National League Champions.

Detroit, Oct. 15.—The Chicago team, champion of the National league, clearly won its title to the world's championship the second successive season yesterday afternoon, by taking its fourth game from Detroit, champion of the American league, by the score of 2 to 0. This was the fifth game, Detroit having taken one of the series. In all the games, with the exception of the Monday game, which was won by Detroit, the National league leaders showed great superiority with the bat, and played better ball in the field as well.

The first two games went to Chicago by the scores of 10 to 6 and 6 to 1. Detroit got the third, 8 to 3, while the next two were shutouts, the one Tuesday, 3 to 0, and again yesterday at 2 to 0.

Chicago's last victory was due to the masterly pitching of Overall, who and the Detroit heavy hitters at his mercy. But three hits were made off him, a single in the first inning by Crawford and a scratch single and a double by McIntyre in the fifth inning. It was in the fifth that Detroit ought to have scored, if ever. Coughlin's rap took a bad bound and it went for a single. Donovan struck out, but McIntyre flying out to center, Coughlin was held at third by Hoffman's fine throw home, and Overall pulled out of the hole by striking out Crawford.

Detroit's only other chance to get into the game was in the first inning after McIntyre had been given his base on balls. O'Leary struck out but Crawford hit for center field for a base. Cobb
